

Student Ambassadors Program

Unable to load contents of IFRAME at this location in the original document. See original HTML document and notify an administrator.

Applications open April 22. Applicants must submit professional references and complete the training schedule in June.

We are a leadership program designed for current students to represent and promote Lee College. Our main objective is to give prospective students the chance to discover Lee College through the perspective of a current student. As an ambassador, you have the opportunity to ignite new interests in students' minds and assist them in finalizing their college decisions. You play a crucial role in recruitment and outreach efforts.

What Would I Do as a Student Ambassador?

- Lead campus tours for prospective students and guests
- Give classroom presentations (K–12 schools within our service area)
- Represent Lee College at career, college, and community fairs
- Assist prospective students with the admissions process

Why Should I Join?

- Earn a scholarship of up to $1,000 per semester
- Build leadership skills and gain valuable professional experience
- Strengthen your public speaking, communication, and interpersonal abilities
- Connect with faculty members, staff members, and community partners through networking opportunities

Am I Eligible to Join?

To be eligible, you must:

- Have completed at least 6 college credit hours
- Be enrolled in at least 6 credit hours each semester
- Maintain a minimum GPA of 2.5
- Commit to completing at least 50 hours of service per semester
- Commit to serving a full academic year (fall to spring)
- Must have dependable transportation

NOTE: Current high school students are not eligible.

For more information, contact Daisy Aramburo at daramburo@lee.edu or call 832.556.4014.

Complete the Application

[FIND A CAREER
My Next Move](#)